K-9's That Died While Still In Service

Police officers that have lost their K9's in the line of duty and who would like to have their K9 partner added to the list, please contact James A. Cortina ( Please include documentation ).

The list below is a list of K-9'S that died while in service only.

A canine officer and his K9 share good friendship and become great co-workers with a unique bond of loyalty that is impossible to describe. When an officer loses his K9 partner it can be devastating for the officer and his family and marks the end of an intense relationship that many say defies description. This list below is dedicated to these special K9'S, some who have died protecting their partner or protecting their community. Services for these fallen K9'S draw leaders, citizens and uniformed handlers. Fire trucks cross their ladders, bagpipes and taps are played, black ribbons are worn across badges, wreaths and American flags are displayed... a fitting farewell for an officer of the law.

This list serves as a tribute to these special K9'S and also as a reminder to the dangers they face every day and lastly for their human partners to view these statistics and increase the safety of coming home together to enjoy another day of working with each other.

Thank you to all who help contribute data.

In alphabetical order by state abbreviations where K9 died.
